Mr Seamus Sullivan
President
Gaelic Football and Hurling Association of Australasia

Dear Mr Sullivan

Thank you for reviewing and accepting the 2015 Gaelic Football and Hurling Association of Australasia Anti-Doping Policy (the Policy).

The Australian Sports Anti-Doping Authority (ASADA) has considered the Policy and can advise that the Policy meets ASADA requirements.

IN ORDER TO MEET YOUR COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENTS, PLEASE:

- Formally adopt your Policy to become effective 1 January 2015
- Publish this Policy, with the 1 January 2015 effective date clearly stipulated and notify ASADA of where it is published. This Policy needs to be made available to all those who have agreed to be bound by your Policy (e.g. at a minimum publish it on your website noting it will be effective from 1 January 2015).
- If not already provided please forward the current version of your International Federation's WADA-compliant Anti-Doping Policy to ASADA.

The final copy of the policy is attached to this email.

Please note that the Gaelic Football and Hurling Association of Australasia is responsible for the enforcement of the Policy and for ensuring that it has the jurisdiction that covers the Policy being applied to all members, in particular the authority to test and, where necessary, sanction members.

Yours sincerely

Mr Ben McDevitt AM APM
Chief Executive Officer
